

HOMESCHOOL DAY

Thursday
March 20, 2025
10am-12:30pm

LEADING LADIES OF ATLANTA

ATLANTA
HISTORY
CENTER

Schedule of Activities

Make Her Mark

Olympic Hallway (Note: new location!)
Ongoing, Craft

Take home your favorite Leading Lady of Atlanta. Stop by our craft station to create a laminated bookmark honoring one (or more!) of the women you learn about today.

“Thy Neighbor as Thyself”

Goldstein Gallery (lower level near bookstore)
10:00am, 10:35am, 11:10am, 11:45am
Duration: 25 minutes

Learn about activism in Atlanta through the lives of two famous ladies: Lugenia Burns Hope and Rhoda Kaufman. As we see how they improved the lives of those around them, we'll find ways that we can be activists too. Come with us to find the best place to make a change in your community!

Heroines of History

West Lobby (lower level through Gatheround exhibit)
10:05am; 10:40am; 11:15am; 11:50am
25 minutes

Artifacts are important to both our history and our future. Choosing what to keep and how to repair it is a big task, but these two female historians were up to the challenge. Join us to learn about preservation and conservation organizations, then try your hand at historical conservation with our very own Collections Manager, Erica Hague!

School Spirit

Kennedy Theater
10:10am, 10:45am, 11:20am, 11:55am
Duration: 25 minutes

Experience the hype at our historical educator pep rally! Come shoot some hoops and make some noise while we celebrate two of Georgia's influential educators. Learn about two women who made a difference for students in Georgia and beyond.

Who Told the Story?

Gatheround Exhibit
10:15am, 10:50am, 11:25am, 12:00pm
Duration: 25 minutes

Step inside our writer's room to research the histories of phenomenal women journalists from Georgia. Uncover their impact within the field and even draft your own newspaper to share a new story with the press!

Scan for
Campus Map

